17. TAX RESIDENCY SELF - CERTIFICATION FORM

Please read before completing this form:

Tax Regulations require Societe General Ghana Limited (hereinafter called 'SG Ghana') to collect and report certain information about Account Holder's tax residency status. The term 'Tax Regulations' refers to regulations created to enable the automatic exchange of information and includes the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information ('CRS'), as implemented in the relevant jurisdictions.

To enable SG Ghana to comply with its obligation to report to the relevant tax authorities, you are required to state the residency for tax purposes of the person or persons identified as the holder(s) of a Financial Account. On this form these persons are cumulatively referred to as the "Account Holder(s)".

If you are not the account holder of the financial account with SG Ghana but are completing the form on their behalf then you should complete Part 1 with the details of the person who is referred to as the account holder and complete the capacity line in Part 6.

Please note:

- Do not use this form if the account holder is not an individual. Instead please complete the "Tax residency self-certification form – Entity".
- You are required to complete all relevant sections in relation to all known accounts held with SG Ghana and to provide any additional information as required to evidence the declaration made.
- If any of the information about the tax residency below changes, you are required to provide a new updated self-certification form within 90 days of such change in circumstances.
- For joint accounts, each account holder should complete a separate form.
- SG Ghana is not allowed to fill this form on your behalf. If you have any questions on how to complete this form or how to determine your tax residence you should contact your tax advisor or local tax authority.

b. The subscriber to a Kit shall pay a single charge for the entire components in the Kit instead of single charges for the individual components in the Kit.

c. All charges and rates shall be deducted from the Customer's Account.

5. Account and account services closure

a. We will close your account on receipt of a request in writing signed by you to do so, but the closure will only be effective after you have returned any unused cheques and bank cards, and all un-cleared cheques or other items deposited have been paid. A request by you to close your account will automatically trigger closure of all account Services you have subscribed to.

b. Bank cards will have to be cut into pieces. If you do not present your card to be cut into pieces and it is used without your authority, you shall be held responsible.

c. You may upon written request to us instruct us to stop providing other account services to you without closing your account and the Bank would stop providing the said services to you. This will however not preclude you from fulfilling any obligations you may have accrued towards us when the service was being provided.

d. If you are subscribed to a Kit, you may write to the Bank and fill a subscription cancellation form to cancel the subscription

e. Upon termination, fees due and already charged shall not be refunded.

f. All individual service charges for the various products shall begin to apply to the customer if he/she chooses to subscribe to any after unsubscribing from the Kit

g. We will on our own volition close your account or stop offering any/a particular account service(s) to you upon giving reasonable prior notice to you using your given address and we shall not be obliged to give reasons for such action.

6) Bank's Right

i. The Bank shall have a general lien over all of your assets in its possession, including but not limited to cash, goods, valuables, negotiable instruments and movable and immovable property used as security for repayment of money whether that money has been repaid or not.

ii. The Bank may realize the assets to offset the debt owed by you only after having given you reasonable notice of our intention so to do and you have not within the period of notice discharged your debt.

iii. If the Bank proceeds to realize the property under (ii) of this clause, you hereby irrevocably appoint us as your attorney for the purpose of realization and shall do all things necessary for the effective realization of the assets. Any surplus funds shall be held on your account subject to the general terms and conditions.

iv. Funds in your fixed deposit(local or foreign currency) may be used to set off your debt regardless of the fact that it has not reached its maturity period

v. Funds in foreign account may also be used to offset your debt and shall be realized at the rate of exchange applicable. We shall not be liable for shortfalls caused by exchange rate fluctuations.

vi. The Bank shall not be responsible or liable in anyway for the outcome of a realization unless it can be shown that we acted in bad faith.

e. Right of Set off

In consideration of the Bank providing you with banking/-financial services and other facilities, you agree that in addition to any other general lien or similar right to which we as Bankers may be entitled by law, the Bank may at any time and without notice to you combine or consolidate all or any of your accounts with/and liability to the Bank and set off or transfer any sum or sums standing to the credit of any one or more of such accounts in or towards satisfaction of any of your liabilities to the Bank on any other account or in any other respect whether such liabilities be actual or contingent, primary or collateral and several or joint.

f. Other Rights

i. Any waiver or concession the Bank may give you will not affect any of the bank's other rights against you.

ii. The Bank's right to receive payment from you shall not be affected by any dispute between you and a supplier.

iii. You must pay all the Bank's expenses in recovering any outstanding amounts you owe the Bank.

7. Aml compliance and fraud prevention

a) In accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2008, (Act 749) together with any modification or reenactment thereof, the Bank shall ascertain the source and usage of funds to protect both the Bank and the Customer's interest. The Bank reserves the right to refuse a transaction where the source and/or the purpose can not be verified or justified.

b) You consent to the Bank carrying out identity and fraud prevention checks and sharing information relating to this application with the Economic and Organized Crime Office ("EOCO") or relevant Law Enforcement Agencies.

Should your account conduct at any time in the future reasonably cause the Bank to suspect that your accounts are being used for improper purposes; the Bank shall provide details of this suspicion to the aforementioned agencies. You understand and agree that the record of this suspicion will then be available to other members of these agencies if they carry out checks in your name.

c) Additional Information and Intra Group Disclosure Any request for an operation or any operation realized by the client and which appears unusual as regards its amount and/or its complexity may be subjected to a request for additional information.

The client expressly accepts that, for the purpose of management of all its requests or operations, information can be communicated to Société Générale and/or to one of its specialized subsidiaries located in France or abroad and hereby consents to such communication. The client recognizes that, if necessary, the bank can refuse to carry out its request or to execute its operation.
